Dear [Name],
I am writing to apologize for the behavior and the bring conduct of [Name]. He was a student at our school for three years. He has been a good student, but he has recently been causing problems in the classroom. He has been disruptive, rude, and disrespectful.
We may need to take some action to address his behavior. I am sorry if this affects you.
Sincerely,

[RECORD DATE]

Dear [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

I have received a report about your unacceptable conduct on [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

I must inform you that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

I am therefore putting you in notice that, if I receive a further report of unacceptable conduct from you,

I will have no choice but to invoke the school's formal procedure to withdraw your permission to enter

or be on the premises of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

A copy of the school's Policy Dealing with Unacceptable Behaviour on School Premises is attached for your information.

I should warn you that, if your permission to enter or be on school premises is withdrawn, you can be removed from the premises by a police officer and may be prosecuted under Section 5(1) of the Education (Offences) Act 1982. If you are removed from the premises, you will be liable to a fine of up to £500 and have a criminal conviction recorded against you.

[REDACTED]

I trust that we will now be able to put this matter firmly behind us.

Yours faithfully,

[REDACTED]

Courtship is the period wherein a couple get to know each other prior to a possible marriage. Preceded by a proposal, courtship traditionally begins after a betrothal and concludes with the celebration of marriage. A courtship may be an informal and private matter between two people or may be a public affair, or a formal arrangement with family approval. Nevertheless, the letter was not enough to satisfy many critics, who felt that the letter failed to address their concerns, and mistakenly presented the abuse as an issue within the Church in Ireland, rather than acknowledging that it was a systemic problem. In July 2010, the Vatican issued a document to clarify their position. Travel through time by exploring Hollywood.com's entertainment news archives, with 30+ years of entertainment news content.
